

Northwest Baseball Institute

The Northwest Baseball Institute (NWBI) offers instruction to campers that desire to develop and improve their fundamental skills and become better baseball players.

Our campers will receive focused attention and specific instruction needed to improve their individual skills. We will group players according to age and ability, allowing everyone to make the most of their time spent with our instructors. All instructors are highly qualified and trained to teach the correct fundamentals of baseball.

Parents will be pleased with the extra attention we give our 12 and under group. Instructors keep a watchful eye on these young players, teaching them fundamentals to instill a life-long love of the game. NWBI CAMPS provide one-of-a-kind learning opportunities for EVERY baseball player.
